

Contributor Guidelines for The Pulse Newsletter

Thank you for submitting an article to The Pulse newsletter! We hope you find the following guidelines helpful.

Photographs: The Joint Projects office encourages contributors to submit clear, high-resolution photographs to illustrate their articles. Images may be sent via email or mailed directly to SHAPE America headquarters and will be returned upon request.

Feature Article

Word count: 500 – 700

Each issue of The Pulse has one full-length feature article. The subject matter is thematic and in general has a feel-good element. Personal anecdotes, survivor stories, and human interest pieces pertaining to the Jump Rope For Heart and Hoops For Heart programs are welcome. Please include a title and byline.

Event Best Practices

Word count: 100 - 200

Showcase your event success! Submit a 100-200 word description of the strategies your school employs to attract attention to your events, increase student engagement, incorporate creativity and expand your school community outreach.

JRFH/HFH Lesson Plans

Word Count: 400

Have a favorite lesson plan that you use with your event? Share it with your fellow coordinators! Lesson plans may be considered for inclusion in additional coordinator resources.

JRFH/HFH Advocacy

Word Count: 200 or less

Not only are JRFH and HFH great service-learning programs, they also support the physical education profession. In a short paragraph, 200 words or less, tell us how JRFH and HFH events have supported your professional development and added value to your PE curriculum. Additional content provided by the AHA and SHAPE America will provide more information on how these organizations advocate for physical education professionals. Please include a title and byline.

State Spotlight

Word Count: 200

Let us know what's new in your state! Awards, recognitions, new initiatives, and success stories are welcome. Additional content will be provided from SHAPE America and the AHA on upcoming events, trainings, conventions and resources for coordinators.

Resources

Word Count: 50 words

Share the JRFH/HFH resources that you have found most helpful with other coordinators. Content will feature books, presenters, companies, and online resources to keep your passion alive and help your programs grow.

To submit content, include your name, school, city and state as well as the section for which you are submitting at the top of your document. Submissions are accepted by email, fax, or mail to:
