

2021 Member At Large

Name: Luis G. Estrada-Oliver

School/Org: Department of Physical Education and Recreation, University of Puerto Rico, San Juan, Puerto Rico

Bio (300 Words or Less):

Within a specialization in Sports/Athletic Administration and a second concentration in Physical Education (PE), Luis has devoted his life to promoting physical activity and healthy lifestyles through different educational settings. For the past fifteen years, he has been working as a Physical Education professor teaching all levels from kindergarten to the college level. Currently, Luis works in different projects implementing the Sport Education and Teaching Personal Social Responsibility Model in school communities. He has participated as a resource in several professional development workshops and was the co-author in the designing of the first master's degree of Sport Entrepreneurship in Puerto Rico. As a member of Shape America, he has contributed teaching tips and has written many articles. His research interests focus on pedagogical models through PE in k-12 settings. His personal interests include running and playing sports.