Name: Valeri Cheseldine

School/Org: Eva Turner Elementary School, Waldorf, MD

Bio (300 Words or Less):

Valeri Cheseldine is a physical education teacher at Eva Turner Elementary School in Waldorf, Maryland. She graduated from Glenville State College in 2013 with a Bachelor of Arts in Education degree certified in Physical (pre-k-adult) and Health Education (5- adult).

She is presently working towards her master's degree in Educational Leadership. She will graduate with a master's in education in the winter of 2022. Valeri has collaborated the last seven years with fellow educators in the community, taught PD's, in service meetings, attended the PE EdCamp in Baltimore, been a part of numerous mentoring programs, assisted and taught in the adapted physical education program, advised the SADD club, advise the K-Kids club, member of the PTO, facilitator for the school safety committee, and presently building the wellness champion team at her school. These activities help promote health and wellness, inspire young leaders, promote school-wide engagement in creating a safety plan, and encourage the community to participate in school-wide events. She is very passionate about including others so they feel a sense of belonging, advocating for people in need of fair and equitable treatment, and breaking down barriers so justice is provided for all. In being proactive with her passions she hopes to inspire others to want to lead.
