Physical Education and physical activity develop students’ knowledge, skills and confidence to be physically literate students who are active for a lifetime.